Frankie and I are very grateful to those who are supporting us with your prayers and financial support. We are eternally grateful to you. We praise the Lord for how He has blessed in our lives and efforts to serve Him. This year we turn 79 and 80 years of age. The Lord has stood by us and you are standing by us.

We went to Byron, Georgia, in October to assist Hardison Baptist Church in calling a pastor. Hardison Baptist Church is near Robins Air Force Base. We returned home January 10. We did pulpit supply, helped them set up a pulpit Committee, and helped in the process of calling a pastor. Please pray for them as they continue in this process. This church has a great history and wonderful facilities. Please contact Steve Nutt (423-544-4045) for more information or to recommend someone to the pulpit committee.

We are now assisting First Baptist Church (Independent) In Pikeville, Tennessee. Their pastor retired December 2021. This church has a wonderful history and wonderful facilities. For more information or to recommend a candidate, please contact Steve Nutt (423-544-4045).

A major difficulty in assisting churches in their process of calling a pastor is the COVID Epidemic, with many churches finding themselves without a pastor and with a tremendous drop in attendance. Some churches are left without the finances and membership to operate the essential ministries of the church.

When we go to assist a church in calling a pastor, we fill the pulpit, help them set up a pulpit committee and train the committee to go through the process of finding and calling a pastor. It is important that the people make the decision themselves. The pastor must be called of God for him to be the right fit for the church. It is important for a committee to learn the process of finding and calling a pastor. We find there is a huge difference in the needed training. Some need little help in the area and others need much help. We must be careful in making our decisions in churches to assist. The number of churches in need is very large. Please, please pray for us as we seek God's power, wisdom, and guidance.

In His Harvest,

Steve and Frankie Nutt
